THE NEW PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL.

The new Railroad bill, as reported in the Senate, on Saturday, is in eighteen long sections, and covers six lines of roads, viz.: The Northern Pacific, from Lake Superior to Puget's Sound; the Atlantic & Pacific, from Springfield, Mo., southwest to the Canadian River, and thence, on the same line pursued by Albuquerque, to the coast; the Southern Pacific, of California, from San Francisco to a junction with the thirty-fifth parallel line, near the eastern boundary of California; the Union Pacific, eastern division, from its present terminus to a junction with the branch from Salt Lake City, and west of Alcuquerque; the Arkansas Valley, from Little Rock, Ark., to Smith, in a junction with the through line at the crossing of the Canadian River; and the Texas Pacific from Portland, to the north head of Humboldt River, in Nevada. The aggregate length of these several lines is about three thousand miles. The government aid asked is by lands and a guarantee of interest on railway bonds. The land grant is that of alternate sections of land on each side of the respective roads, within twenty miles through Territories, and within ten miles through States, except that the limits on each section per mile restricted, as soon as selected and approved by the President, to the value of ten dollars per acre, for compensation in an invisible; this gives the Northern Pacific, for instance, a quantity of 47,360 acres of land for 100 miles.

THE TIMES IN ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE ALABAMA TREATY.

LONDON, Feb. 6.

The government has resolved on the abolition of the University tests.

The Times denounces the Alabama treaty and says it is incomprehensible that it was done, unless there was a secret stipulation somewhere to the contrary. The consideration of the question of the recognition of the Southern States as belligerents was plainly unwritten by in the treaty. Nothing was mentioned. The details of the treaty have grown out of and owing to the anti-popular fashion in which negotiations have been conducted. If the United States Senate hesitates to ratify the project, Ireland will not object. It is noticeable that the whole treaty is carried out by men. As for the people, probably they will say as to the empire for final decision. If this is a settlement, the Times asks for more definition of its terms.

Services in Plymouth Congregational Church.

First Sermon by the New Pastor, Rev. William A. Bartlett.

A Large Congregation.

The Rev. William A. Bartlett, formerly of Rutland, Vt., was duly installed as pastor of the Congregational Church of Plymouth Rock, Indiana, with appropriate services, on Sunday last. The congregation, usually a large one, was augmented by strangers who flocked in hundreds to hear the opening discourse, and many were unable to gain admittance. The interest was manifested throughout the day.

After the customary preliminary exercises, he announced as his text: First Corinthians, 14th chapter, 7th and 8th verses.

"And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped? For if the [illegible]
